Dear Mr Fouratt:

January 28, 2008 assistant US Attorney John J Zavitz served me with three writs of garnishment: 1 Sandia Laboratory Federal Credit Union, 2 Wells Fargo Bank, and 3 Bank of America.

No NOTICE OF GARNISHMENT AND INSTRUCTIONS FOR OBJECTING TO THE ANSWER or CERTIFICATE OF SERVICE OF DOCUMENTS for Sandia Laboratory Federal Credit Union were included in Zavitz's certified mail 7005 1820 0006 5937 6669.

See attached affidavit.

Therefore, I was improperly served in the Sandia Laboratory Federal Credit Union action.

US attorney John Zavitz has a history of either not understanding or ignoring legal procedures.

In United States District Court - District of New Mexico 01cv00634 Zavitz failed to file entry of appearance before filing motion.

08/22/2001 08/22/2001 44 MOTION by plaintiffs for sanctions against Assistant U.S. Attorney John J. Zavitz for violation of Federal Local Rule of Civil Procedure 83.4 [270k] [7 pages] RE: [57] ORDER by District Judge William F.... [519k] [22 pages]

For the reason I feel that I must be properly served and that all materials sent to Sandia Laboratory Federal Credit Union and United States District Court - District of New Mexico on January 28, 2008 are null and void.

I ask that I, Sandia Laboratory Federal Credit Union and United States District Court - District of New Mexico be served properly again, if you do not wish to settle.

Zavitz's and the New Mexico US attorney's office appears to be demonstrating remarkably poor judgment peaceful in these matters not in the interests of the US or its citizens.

How the Iraq/Iran War Got Started enumerates many of the facts associated with these matters.

Others are following progress of these matters on Internet.

We feel peaceful settlement of these unfortunate matters is in the best interests.

Therefore, we solicit your help in settlement of these unfortunate matters by February 15, 2008.

Sincerely,

William H. Payne
